

Duck-Duck-Chicken

All you need to play this game is a rubber chicken. Seat all the players in a circle. One player will circle the group, gently bopping everyone on the head with the chicken while calling out "Duck, duck...". At some point she will change her call to "CHICKEN", drop the rubber chicken in the lap of her target player, and take off around the circle. The player who has received the chicken has to stand up and run around the circle after the first player, with the intent of racing her back to the empty spot in the circle, just like in the game "Duck, Duck, Goose". However, the second player can also try to tag the first by clipping her with the rubber chicken. Whomever makes it back to the empty spot first, without the chicken in their hand, wins the round. The loser then takes the chicken and starts around the circle again, bopping players on the head.
